Instructions

Outline

The student will create a 1–2-page outline that details each major section of his/her paper. The outline will include the title page, abstract, introduction, body, conclusion, and references. The outline's structure must serve as a blueprint for the final draft as it will map out where the citations will be placed and assist in the development of the paper's supporting ideas.